How to Use Mask Pro

Then use the Magic Brush to paint away the area you don't want.

Repeat this process around the image to completely remove the background. Remember to only pick the colors in the area you are working on.

A screenshot of the Mask Pro software interface. The main window shows a photograph of a dense pile of brown, tangled hair against a blue sky with white clouds. Several colored circles (green, purple, red) are overlaid on the hair, indicating areas being masked. A "Mask Options" dialog box is open in the bottom right corner, showing settings for "Mask Edge" (Soft, 60%), "Mask Size" (Large, 700%), "Threshold" (100%), and "Use color discrimination" (checked).
